Instruction to your Bank or Building Society to pay by Direct Debit
	The Palace Trust uses the Bath and Wells Diocesan Board of Finance (DBF) to collect Direct Debit payments, and this is the name that will appear on your bank statement. By choosing to pay by direct debit, your membership will be renewed automatically each year. We will write to you in advance of renewal to advise you of this.
To: The Manager Bank/Building Society		Instruction Please pay The Palace Trust (via its agent the DBF) Direct Debits from the account detailed in this instruction subject to the safeguards assured by the Direct Debit Guarantee. I understand that the instruction may remain with The Palace Trust and, if so, details will be passed electronically to my Bank/Building Society.
