The Bishop's Palace is run by The Palace Trust, a charity which operates with the aim of protecting the Palace and Gardens, for all to visit, benefit and enjoy.

The Bishop's Table supports this mission with all profits from the café going towards furthering the development of the site.

We are very conscientious regarding food miles and aim to source our products within a fifty mile radius. Whilst sourcing ingredients on site from our community garden, as well as supporting our fabulous local suppliers

The Bishop's Table was named after Bishop's Ken's tradition of inviting twelve poor men and women of Wells to share a meal at his table when in residence at the Palace. Bishop Ken was Bishop here from 1685-1691.
