BBC Antiques Roadshow at The Bishop's Palace

The Bishop's Palace in Wells has announced that they will be hosting BBC Antiques Roadshow this year in their 44th series!

Could you have an undiscovered treasure at home?

Fiona Bruce and the Roadshow team will be appraising everything from car boot bargains to treasured family possessions.

Due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic the team is asking members of the public who'd like to participate to share their stories online at www.bbc.co.uk/antiquesroadshow. The series will be filmed on a closed set with an invited audience only to ensure the safety of guests, production and the wider public.

Successful applicants will be invited to attend a recording session where they will share their items with a Roadshow expert who will be able to reveal more about the craftsmanship, history and provenance of each piece—as well as the all-important value.

Returning for her 14th year at the helm, Fiona Bruce acknowledges the team's success at recording the show under challenging circumstances in 2020 and goes on to encourage people to apply to be a part of the programme in 2021:

“We were thrilled that we managed to make a series of the Antiques Roadshow last summer despite all the difficulties of filming during the pandemic. Hopefully things will be easier this summer though life may not yet be back to normal by the time we start filming. So if you have an item that you'd like to bring along to the Roadshow, do please get in touch with us beforehand at www.bbc.co.uk/antiquesroadshow. Here's hoping for a summer of great finds!”

More information and frequently asked questions can be found at www.bbc.co.uk/antiquesroadshow or on the show's Facebook page.

ABOUT THE BISHOP'S PALACE

The Bishop's Palace is the 800-year-old home of the Bishops of Bath & Wells. The medieval palace is also home to the wells and ancient springs that give the City of Wells its name, the world famous mute swans that ring a bell alongside the Gatehouse when they want their food, and 14 acres of stunning gardens. Within the gardens are an Arboretum, formal planted gardens, the ruined and romantic Great Hall, waterfalls and well pools, a Community Garden and the new Garden of Reflection.

The Palace buildings open to the public include a medieval undercroft, a striking Long Gallery, hung with portraits of former bishops, exhibition space and the beautiful medieval Chapel.

There is a modern, family and dog friendly café, serving produce from the gardens, drinks, cakes and light meals and a gift shop. The site is accessible for wheelchair users, with new, even pathways in the gardens and a lift in the Palace building.

The Bishop's Palace is managed by The Palace Trust, registered charity number 1160830.
