

20. The palace interior, c. 1464. Thomas Chaundler is shown presenting another of his books to Bekynton. The third figure is the Bishop's chaplain. This drawing is rare, as it was apparently drawn from life and it depicts a contemporary room. The geometric tiles contrast strongly with the vivid patterning of the throne canopy and wall hangings.

